JESUITS

It's 3:15! Hit it!
CRASH!
What's that?!
Daddy! Mommy!
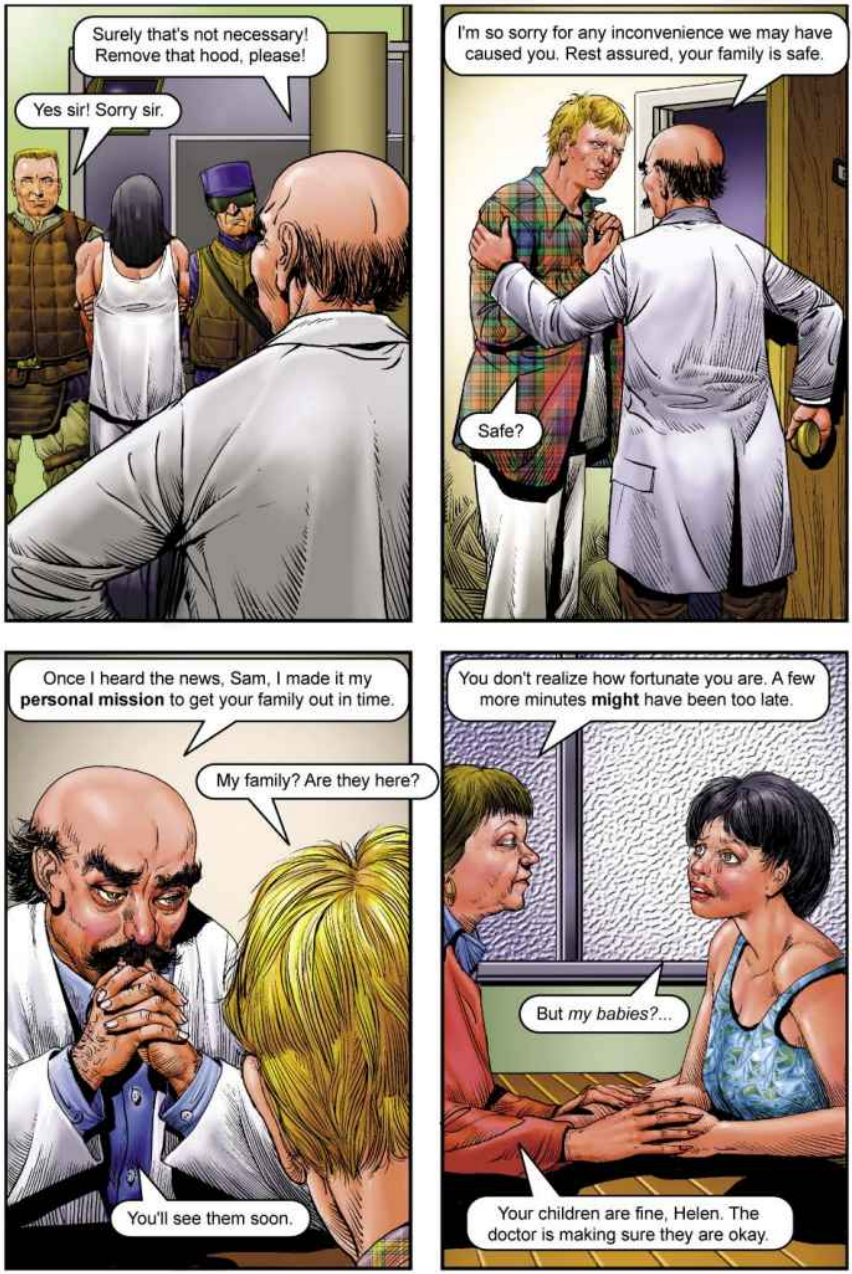
Helen!
Thwip
Mommy!
Owrooo
Where are you taking me?
Screech!
You'll see!



Surely that's not necessary! Remove that hood, please!
Yes sir! Sorry sir.
I'm so sorry for any inconvenience we may have caused you. Rest assured, your family is safe.
Safe?
Once I heard the news, Sam, I made it my personal mission to get your family out in time.
My family? Are they here?
You'll see them soon.
You don't realize how fortunate you are. A few more minutes might have been too late.
But my babies?...
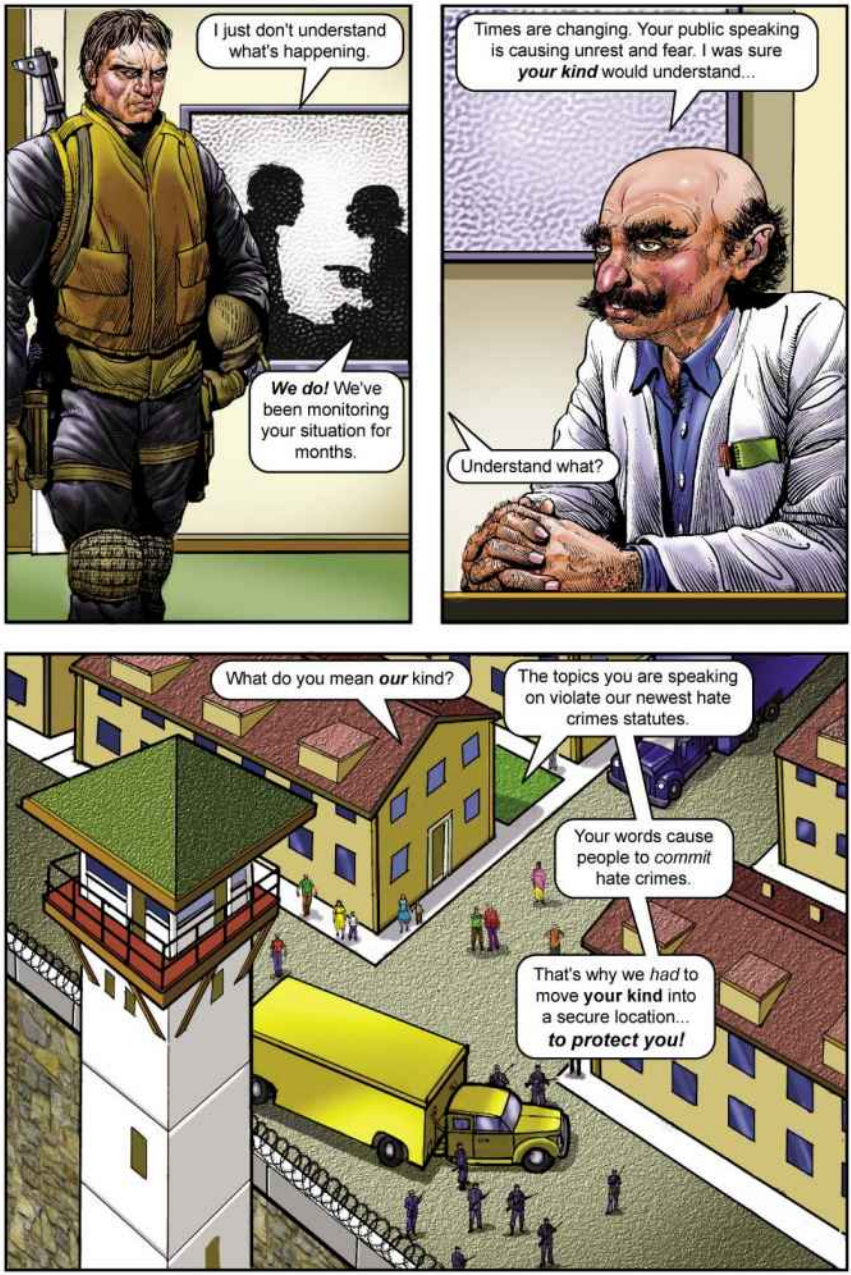
Your children are fine, Helen. The doctor is making sure they are okay.



I just don't understand what's happening.
We do! We've been monitoring your situation for months.
Times are changing. Your public speaking is causing unrest and fear. I was sure your kind would understand...
Understand what?
What do you mean our kind?
The topics you are speaking on violate our newest hate crimes statutes.
Your words cause people to commit hate crimes.
That's why we had to move your kind into a secure location... to protect you!

Change is in the wind, Sam. You must be careful what you say, who you meet with, and what you write! You're being watched! But let me be clear —I'm here for you! Whatever you need... if anyone verbally attacks you, just ask for me by name.
I'll talk to the guards — They'll look out for you!
I really appreciate that, sir!
Please, call me Henry!
Thank you, Henry.
I need you to realize, Sam, this situation is temporary. Soon you'll be resettled in a nicer neighborhood!
I'm so glad we could straighten this out, Sam.
Are preparations ready?
You're all set in Beech Grove. Helicopter's waiting.
I love Indiana this time of year.
What shall we do with Sam Armstrong?
What do I care? He's your responsibility now.

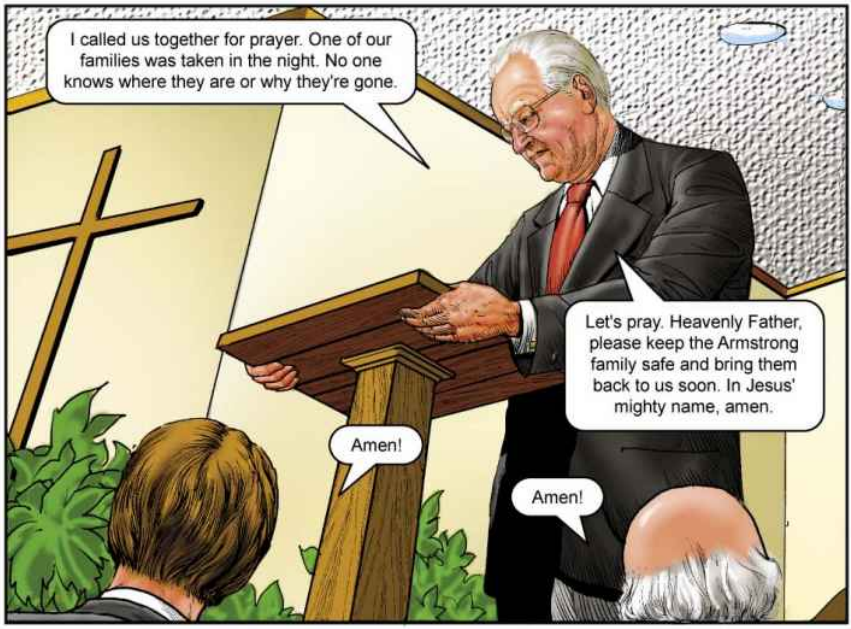
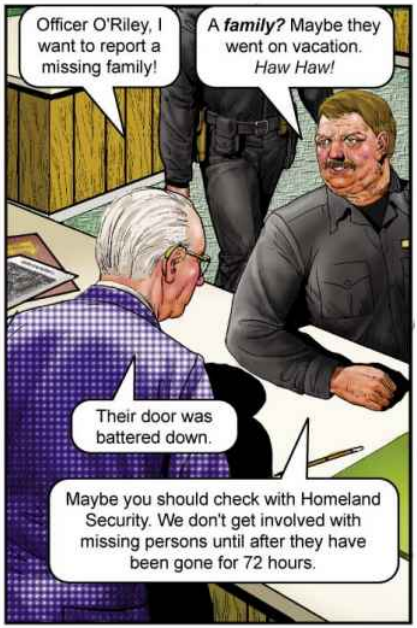
I've searched the house. No sign of them, and some of their things are gone!
Let's call the pastor!
These are your quarters for now. You are free to associate with the other families.
Oh, Sam!
Thank you.
Daddy!
Later
We were picked up in the middle of the night.
So were we!
They said it was for our protection.
Well I, for one, am not buying it!



I called us together for prayer. One of our families was taken in the night. No one knows where they are or why they're gone.
Let's pray. Heavenly Father, please keep the Armstrong family safe and bring them back to us soon. In Jesus' mighty name, amen.
Amen!
Amen!



Officer O'Riley, I want to report a missing family!
A family? Maybe they went on vacation. Haw Haw!
Their door was battered down.
Maybe you should check with Homeland Security. We don't get involved with missing persons until after they have been gone for 72 hours.

HOMELAND SECURITY
We can't get involved, Pastor. We only deal with national emergencies. Try your local Police Department.
I did!
How nice. Next please!
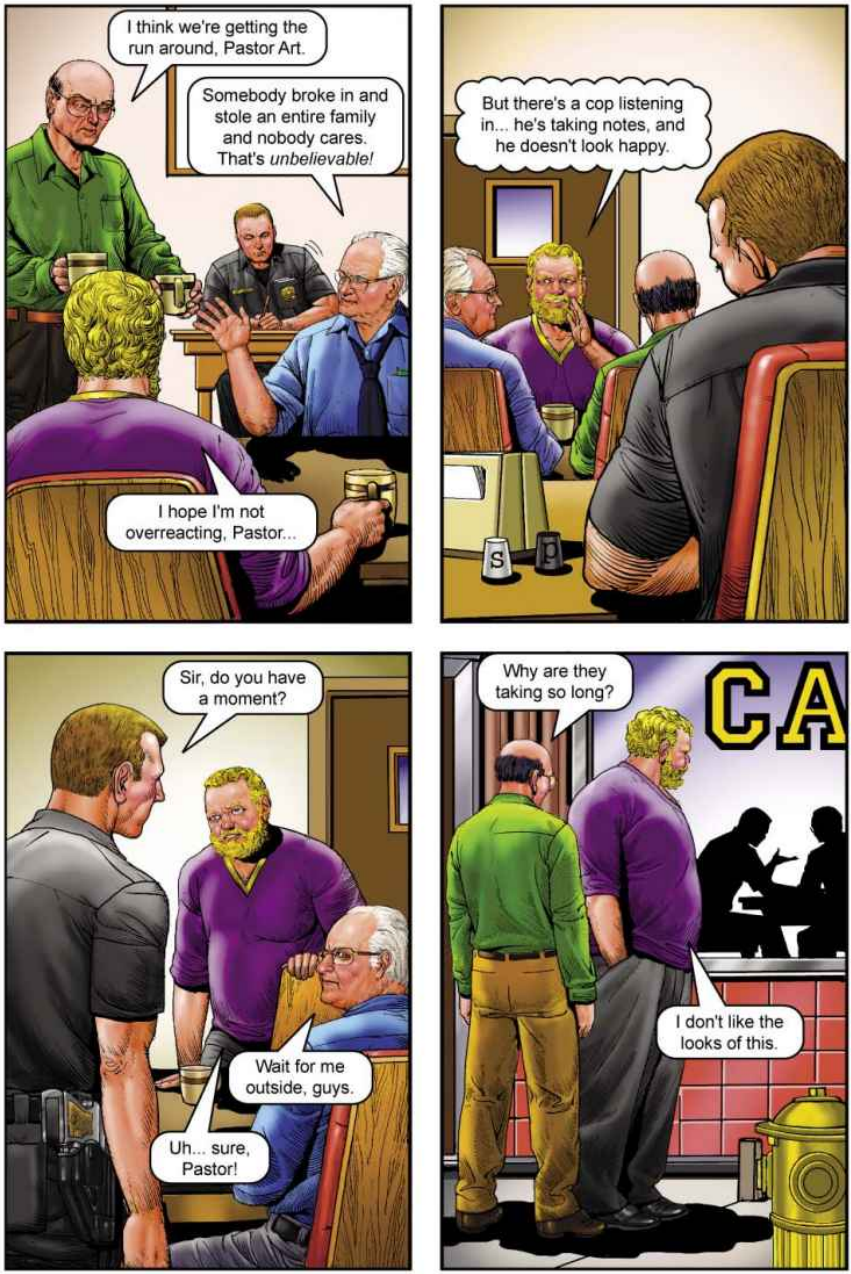
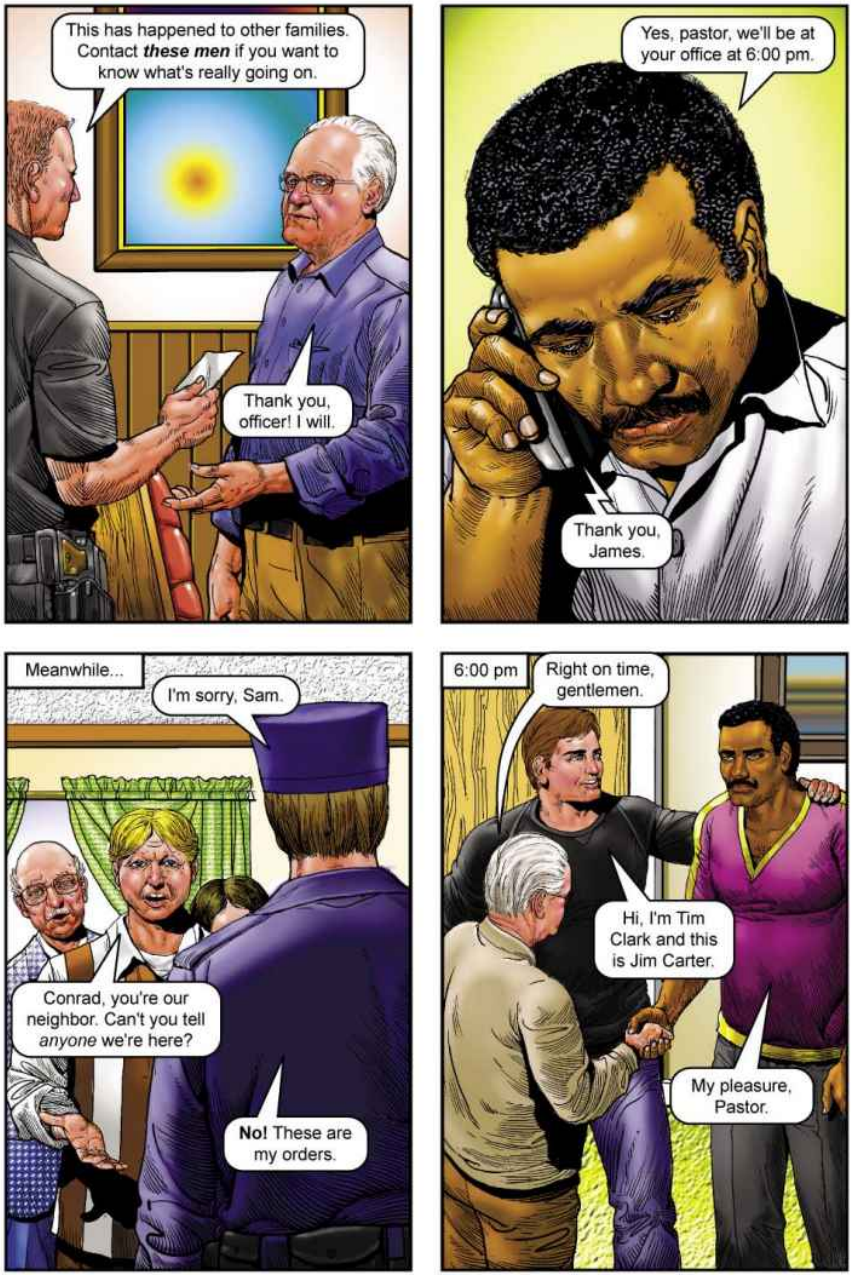
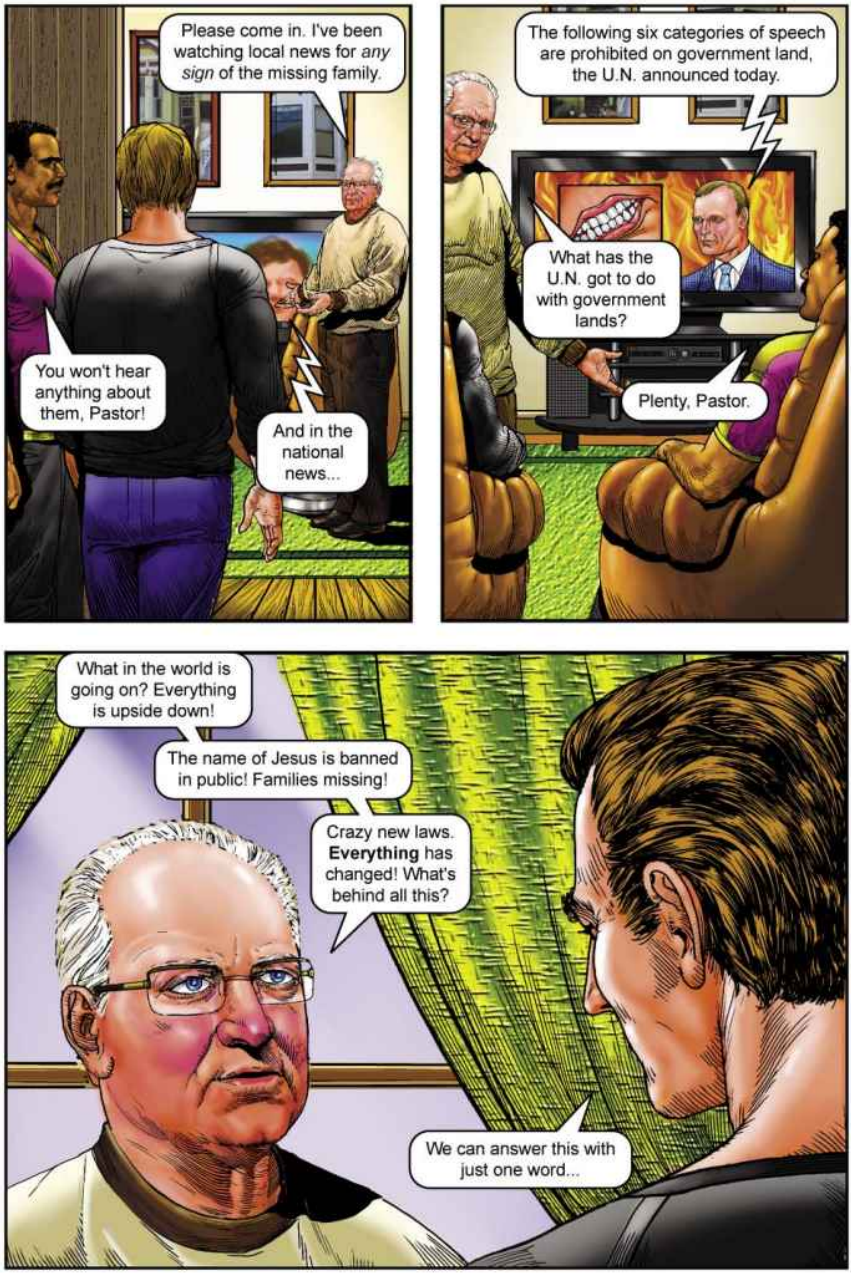
Ding!



I think we're getting the run around, Pastor Art.
Somebody broke in and stole an entire family and nobody cares. That's unbelievable!
I hope I'm not overreacting, Pastor...
But there's a cop listening in... he's taking notes, and he doesn't look happy.
Sir, do you have a moment?
Wait for me outside, guys.
Uh... sure, Pastor!
Why are they taking so long?
I don't like the looks of this.



This has happened to other families. Contact these men if you want to know what's really going on.
Thank you, officer! I will.
Yes, pastor, we'll be at your office at 6:00 pm.
Thank you, James.
Meanwhile...
I'm sorry, Sam.
Conrad, you're our neighbor. Can't you tell anyone we're here?
No! These are my orders.
6:00 pm
Right on time, gentlemen.
Hi, I'm Tim Clark and this is Jim Carter.
My pleasure, Pastor.



Please come in. I've been watching local news for any sign of the missing family.
You won't hear anything about them, Pastor!
And in the national news...
The following six categories of speech are prohibited on government land, the U.N. announced today.
What has the U.N. got to do with government lands?
Plenty, Pastor.
What in the world is going on? Everything is upside down!
The name of Jesus is banned in public! Families missing!
Crazy new laws. Everything has changed! What's behind all this?
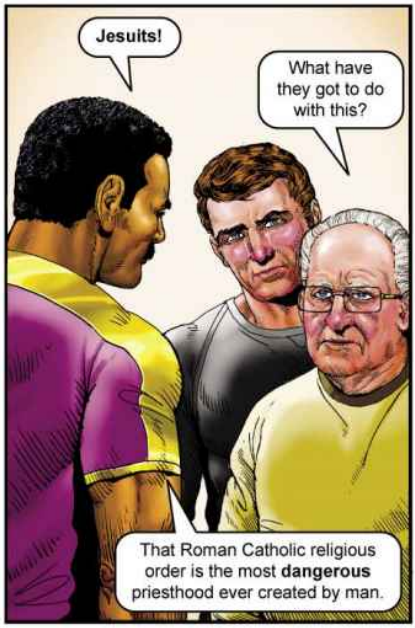
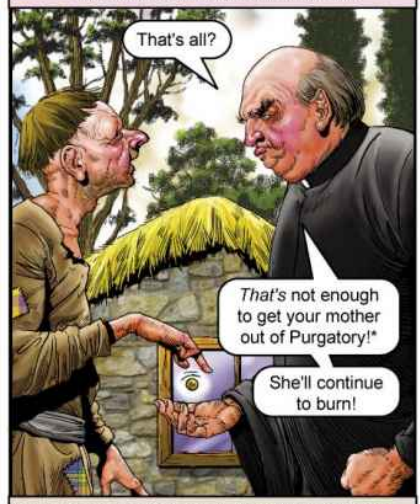
We can answer this with just one word...



Jesuits!
What have they got to do with this?
That Roman Catholic religious order is the most dangerous priesthood ever created by man.

Lets go back to the early 1500's. For generations, Catholic leaders had taken advantage of their people.



*Purgatory: an imaginary place created by the Roman Catholic system where the dead must "burn off" their sins.

Greedy Rome was conning the poor Catholics... they were sold "Holy Relics" to give them good luck.

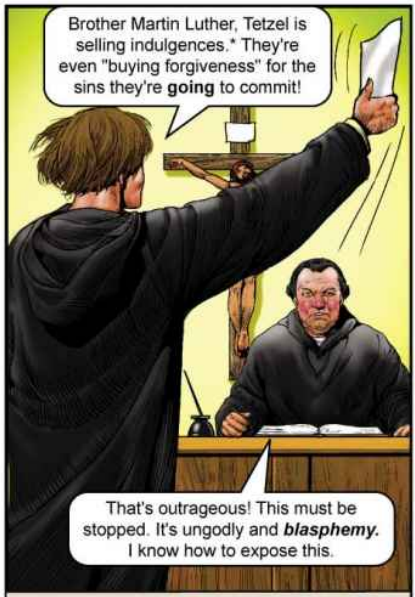
Thousands of fake items like "feathers from the angel Gabriel's wings," "nails used in the crucifixion" and even vials of "Mary's milk." They paid lots for this stuff —but it was never enough for the greedy pope.

Pope Leo X wanted a magnificent church in Rome, but he didn't want to pay for it out of his pocket. What's a pope to do?

If you want quick money, Your Holiness, I can help.
How, Johannes Tetzel?
It's easy! Tell them God will take them to heaven —if the price is right.

Wonderful! It will pay for a whole Vatican City!
How about this for a slogan: when a coin in the coffer clings, a soul from purgatory springs!
Haw haw!

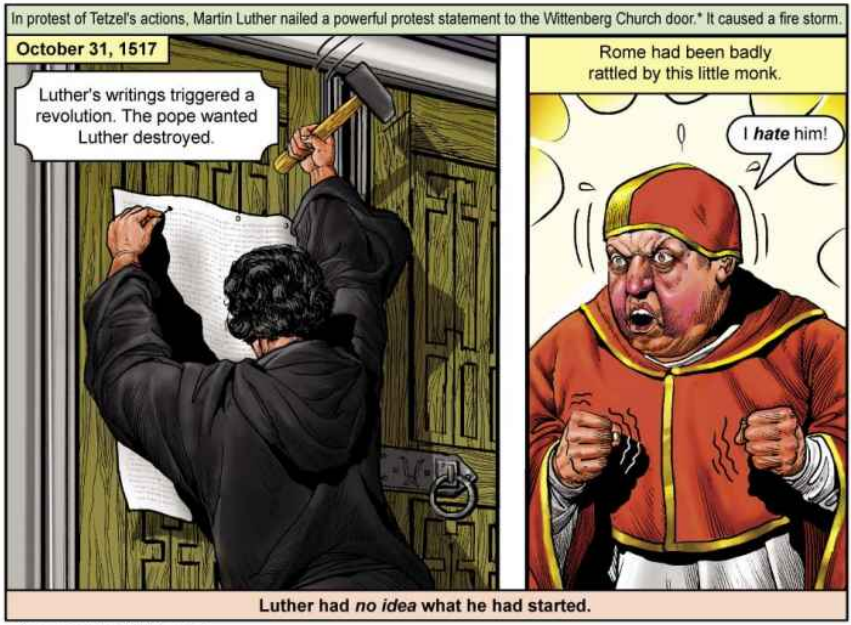
The pope was delighted.



Brother Martin Luther, Tetzel is selling indulgences.* They're even "buying forgiveness" for the sins they're going to commit!
That's outrageous! This must be stopped. It's ungodly and blasphemy. I know how to expose this.

*Money paid to lessen time burning in Purgatory.

In protest of Tetzel's actions, Martin Luther nailed a powerful protest statement to the Wittenberg Church door.* It caused a fire storm.



October 31, 1517
Luther's writings triggered a revolution. The pope wanted Luther destroyed.
Rome had been badly rattled by this little monk.
I hate him!

Luther had no idea what he had started.

*Known as "The 95 Theses."

Pope Leo X brought charges against Luther's writings and a trial was held, known as "the Diet of Worms"* in 1521.

Luther was commanded either to recant or reaffirm his beliefs.

*Imperial assembly at the city of Worms in what is now Germany.

Retract (take back) his statements.

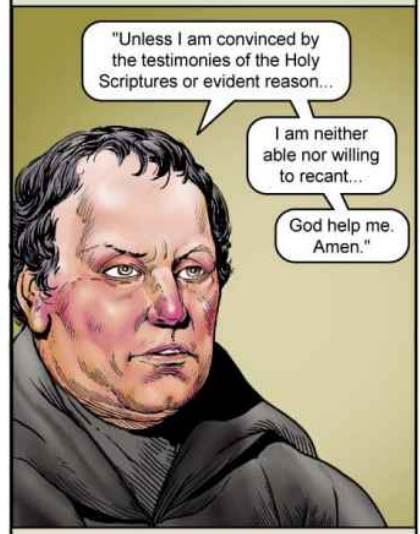
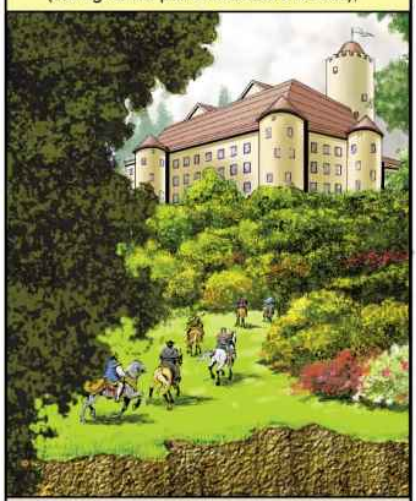
On April 18, 1521, Luther took his stand for the word of God.



"Unless I am convinced by the testimonies of the Holy Scriptures or evident reason...
I am neither able nor willing to recant...
God help me. Amen."

He expected to be burnt at the stake.

But before the verdict could be read (calling for his punishment as a heretic),*



...his friend, Frederick of Saxony, pulled off a phony kidnapping... and rushed him to his castle for protection.

*The verdict was read on May 25, 1521.

This gave Luther time to translate God's preserved words into German. He completed the New Testament in only 11 weeks!

What started as a scholarly debate sent shockwaves into the Catholic world, because one man had the guts to face this monster.

The Reformation had begun.

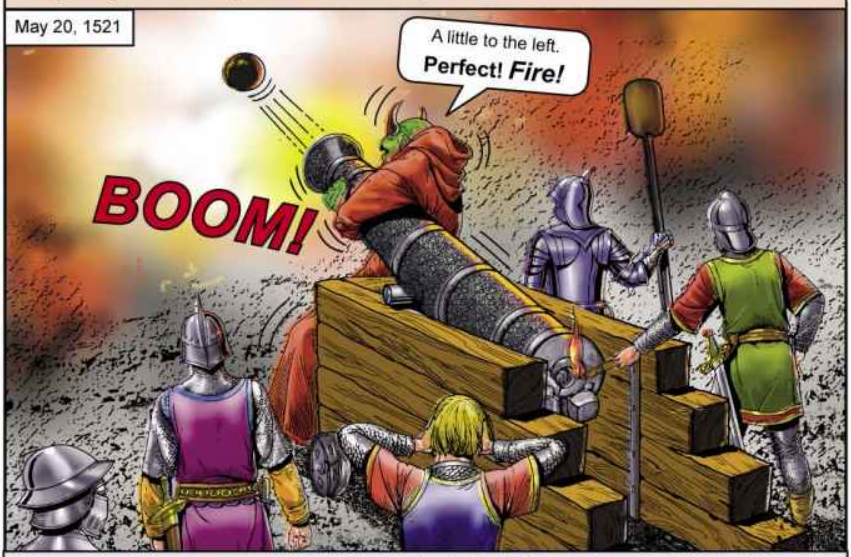
Roman Catholics who read Luther's German Bible were shocked to find Rome's traditions were not in the Holy Scriptures. This echoed all the way to Rome.

Satan could see the writing on the wall.

The Devil knew his beloved Roman Catholic institution would be destroyed if Catholics trusted the scriptures instead of Mary, traditions and popes.

Satan needed to raise up his own champion —an evil genius to control people's minds, and turn them away from the words of God.

The Devil set his sights on the one man who he thought could wipe out the Reformation. One fateful day during the French siege of the Citadel of Pamplona:

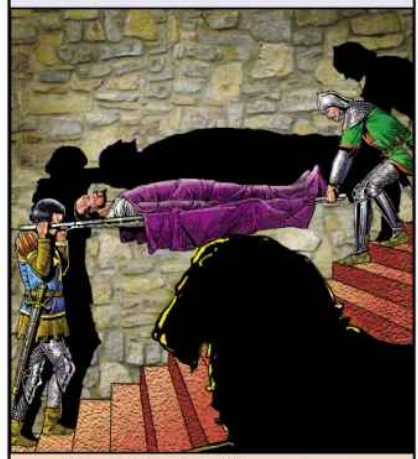


Who was he aiming at?

Captain Ignatius of Loyola was hit with a one-in-a-million shot.

This brave soldier had lived a charmed life. Never before had he been wounded in battle. But the Devil had big plans for him.

This tragedy ended his military career.



His enemies admired his courage so much that they treated his wounds, then sent him home to Loyola castle.

See Ignatius of Loyola and the Early Jesuits, by Stewart Rose (1871), pp. 15-16.

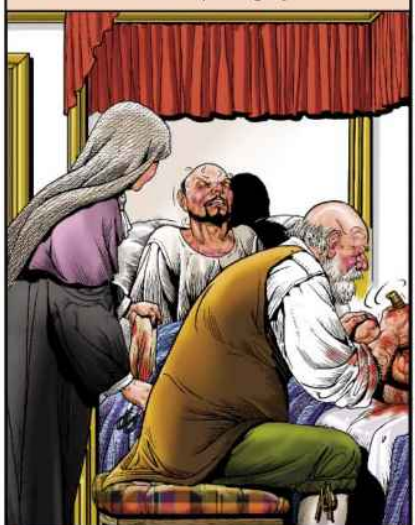
He underwent several painful operations which he bore with quiet dignity.



Then he was left to rest and recover.

See Life of St. Ignatius of Loyola, by F. A. Forbes

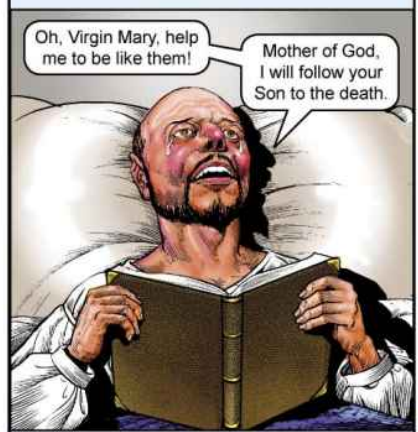
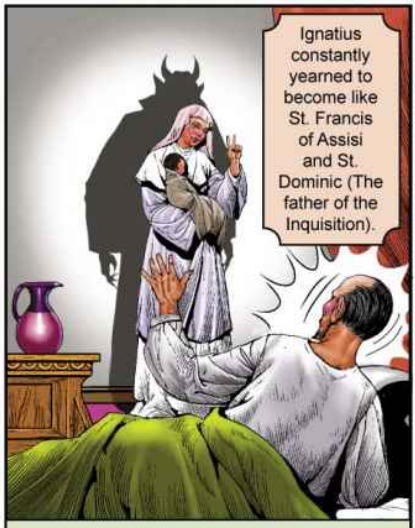
Ignatius loved romance novels, but the only books available to him were legends of the Catholic saints and the life of Christ.



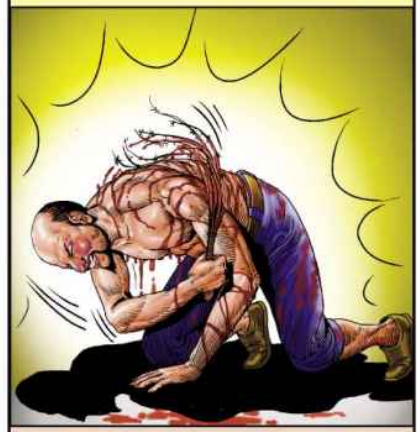
Ignatius longed to do great deeds, like the stories of these Catholic saints.

It was the end of one career and the beginning of another.



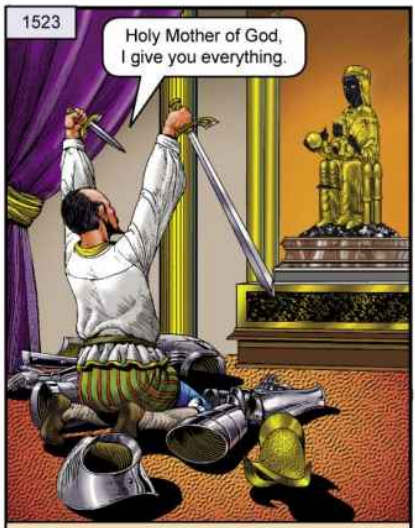
One night, the Devil appeared to him in the form of the blessed Virgin Mary and the infant Jesus. He was hooked. From that moment Satan controlled his life through visions.

He claimed that the vision of Mary stopped all his lustful desires...



But he still beat himself nightly to pay for his past sins against "Mother Church." (He knew nothing of the forgiveness of Christ —only Catholic traditions.)

See The Autobiography of St. Ignatius, translated by Joseph O'Conner (1900) pp. 27-28.



In pure devotion to Mary, Ignatius hung up his sword and dagger by the altar of the Black Madonna in the Benedictine Monastery of Montserrat.

See Autobiography (1900), p. 37.

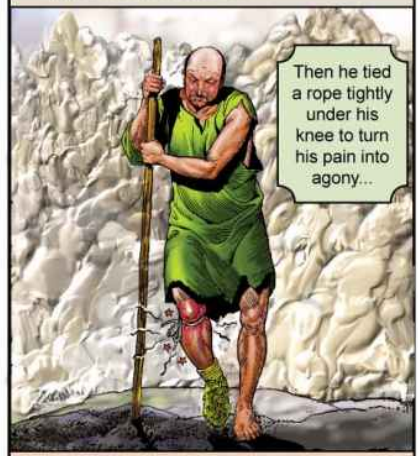
As he began his journey, he gave his fine clothing to a passing beggar and put on painful sackcloth to suffer.



...to further atone for his sins.
This isn't repentance —it's *penance!

*Penance: self punishment to pay for sins.

See Autobiography, pp. 35-36, 38.

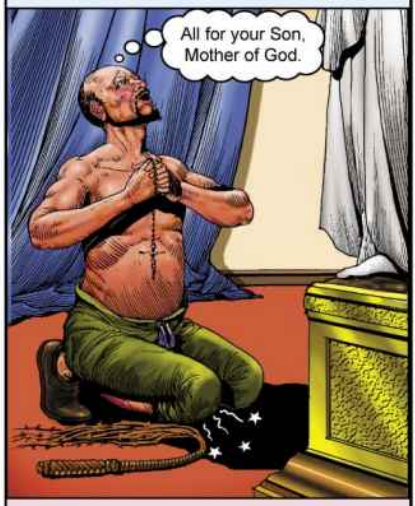
Ignatius had incredible will power... He would spend a day on his knees in prayer to the "Blessed Virgin."



And he still whipped himself three times a day.

See Autobiography, p. 47

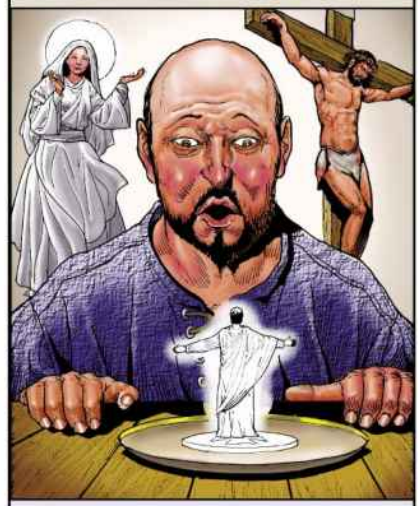
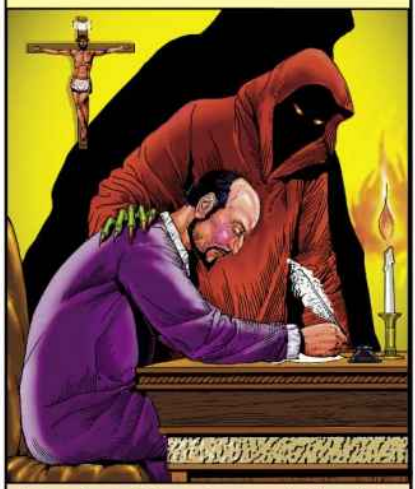
When he began to receive symbolic visions that he claimed were of Mary and Jesus, he stopped this pattern of self-abuse.



He even saw visions of Jesus in the Eucharist.*

*The wafer that a priest claims becomes Jesus.

These visions gave Ignatius ideas for a kind of brainwashing that he soon called "The Spiritual Exercises."



Satan directed him on how to control the minds of his future Jesuit disciples.

See Autobiography, pp. 53-57.

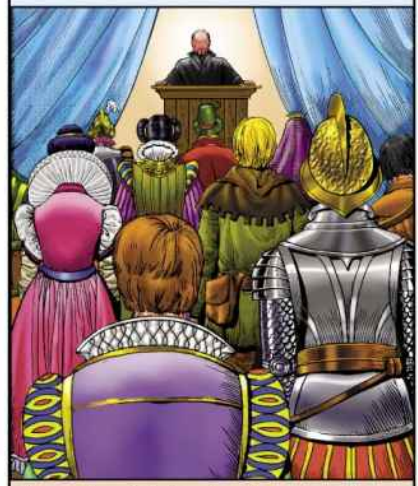
Satan illuminated his mind and he drew followers to himself like moths to a flame.



The number of disciples kept increasing. This made the secret police of the Catholic Inquisition very suspicious of this new religious movement.

See Ignatius of Loyola and the Early Jesuits,

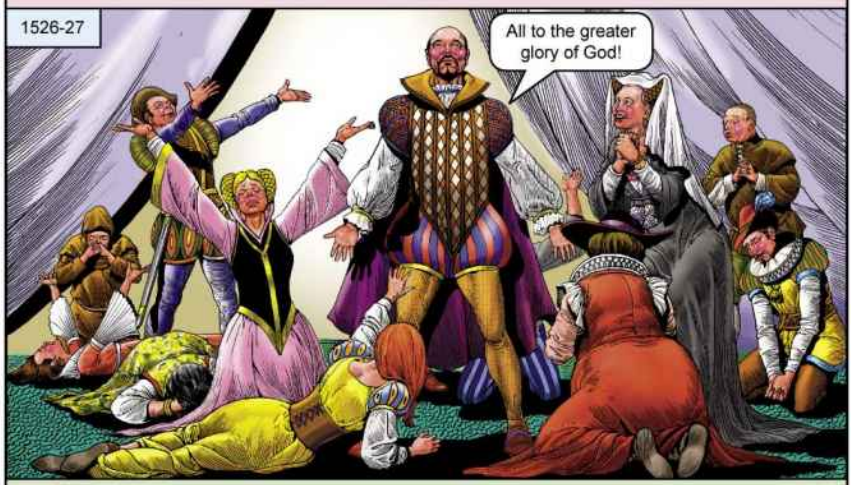
In his schooling at Alcala, Spain, his reputation preceded him. Ignatius was a war hero, and some claimed he was a Don Juan (a ladies' man), when he drew groups of religious women to receive spiritual guidance.

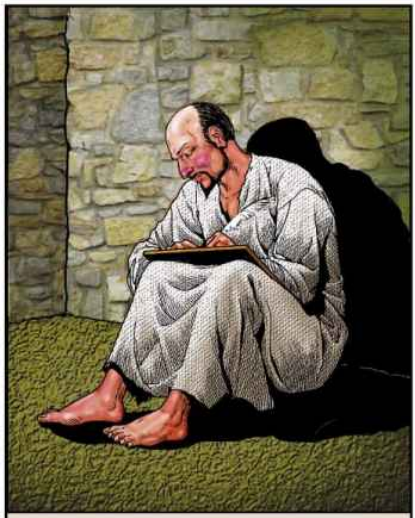


His ability to control minds was light years ahead of his time. Women would have visions, swoon and faint. Men admired him and would follow him to the death. These were known as "Enlightened Ones" —Illuminati.

This was too much for the local priests.

*Spanish for "Enlightened one" —member of the Illuminati.

An unseen hand protected him. He was never tortured, but placed in a cell and allowed visitors.



Within a few years' time Ignatius faced four Inquisitions (trials). Each time he was found innocent and honored as a holy man.

For instance, see Autobiography, pp. 90-108, 120-21, & 127-28.

It was soon followed by another vision. Despite these ordeals, Ignatius and his friends completed their education and were ordained to the priesthood in 1537. After this came the most momentous vision of his life.

I will for you to take this man as your servant.
Ignatius resolved to create a new religious order for this "Jesus."
My will is that you should serve me.

Ignatius called his group "The Company of Jesus." Now they are known as "The Jesuit Order."

See Ignatius Loyola and the Early Jesuits, pp. 190-192.

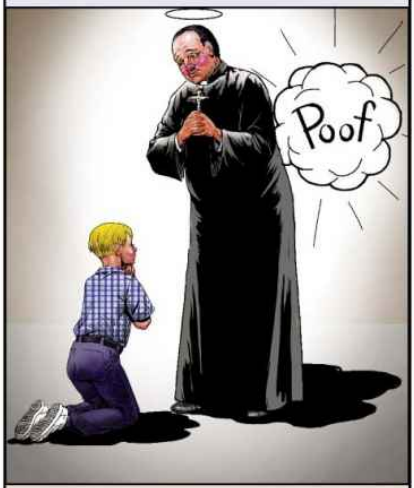
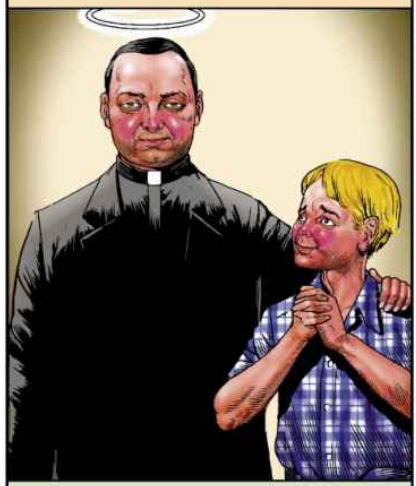
But it was up to Pope Paul III to decide if this little group would be allowed to exist.*
Our Most Sacred Lord Pope, we vow to go anywhere and do anything you want... to the greater glory of God.
We will become the confessors of the powerful and the teachers of their children.
I accept you and your order as "The Society of Jesus."
On September 17, 1540 the Jesuits became the official arm of Rome to destroy the hated Protestants and Baptists. And on April 19, 1541 Ignatius was unanimously elected Jesuit General for life.
*See Constitutiones Societatis Jesu, anno 1558 (London, 1838), pp. 101-106.
This was the meager beginning of a force that would eventually control nations, create wars and run the world's finances.
In 1960 there were 90 Jesuit colleges in 27 countries. In the United States alone, the 28 Jesuit colleges have over 1,000,000 living graduates.
Wait —you said they controlled nations. What do colleges have to do with that?
You have no idea of the true purpose of Jesuit "education!"

Their schools provide a teacher (or mentor) that manipulates the student's thinking in such a way that God disappears and is replaced by his "godly" priest...

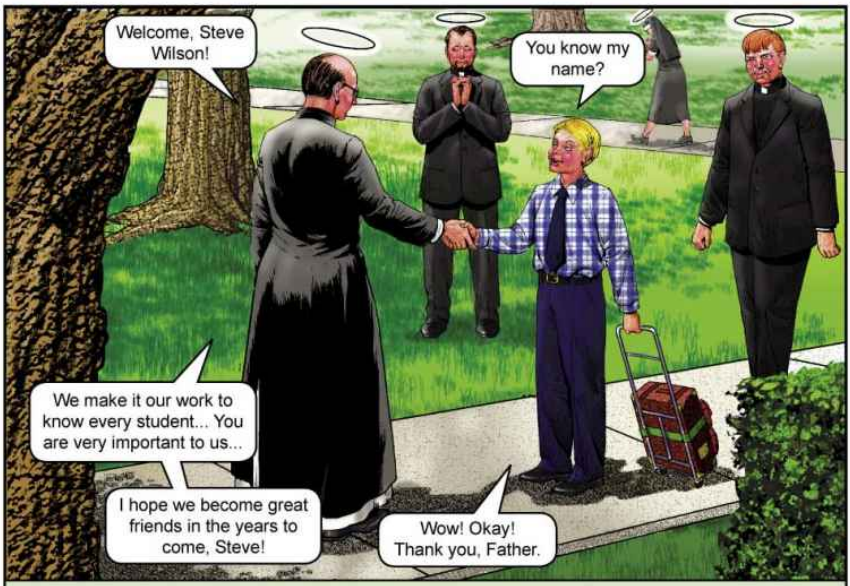


It's diabolical.

The result —a submissive, brain-washed robot that has willingly offered his mind, body, and soul into the hands of...



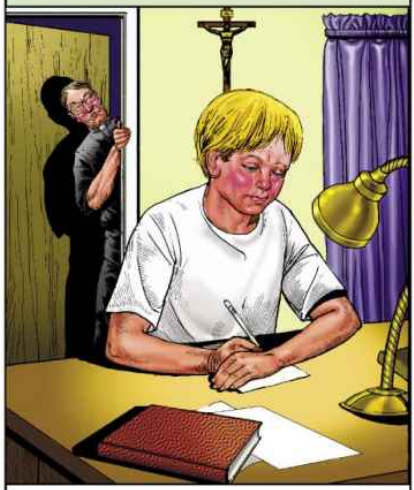
the only person he thinks he can trust: his mentor (Big Brother).



Welcome, Steve Wilson!
You know my name?
We make it our work to know every student... You are very important to us...
I hope we become great friends in the years to come, Steve!
Wow! Okay! Thank you, Father.

But things are not as they seem!

In reality, every student is closely watched to see if he is a potential Jesuit. The rest they will turn into Jesuit assets.*



*Assets: People who can be used to further Jesuit goals, whether they realize it or not.

Each Jesuit reports to his superiors and obeys them without question.* The head of the college is a "Rector"...

who reports to a "Provincial" (the Jesuit over a region), who reports regularly to the "Jesuit General" (head of the order).

All of this is done with military precision.

*See The Constitutiones Societatis Jesu, (1558), Part 2, Ch. 1, Para. 2; Part 3, Ch. 1., Para. 23-24.

The Jesuit Order is a highly disciplined army. The key to their discipline: absolute obedience.

Each Jesuit is as a "corpse" in the hands of the General. The General is respected and feared by every Jesuit as God Himself.*

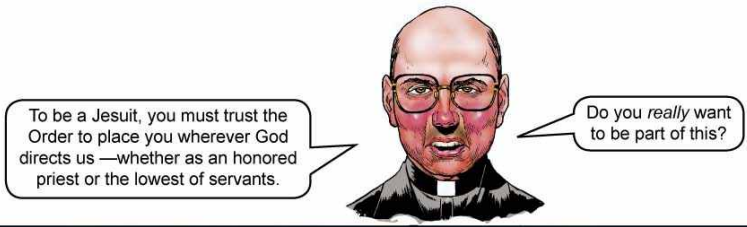
†See Rulers of Evil by F. Tupper Saussy, (NY: Harper Collins, 1999), pp. 296-297.

He's the most powerful and dangerous man on the face of the earth.

*All Jesuits in their vows speak of the General as "holding the place of God." See The Constitutiones Societatis Jesu

Back in 1545 Ignatius (the first Jesuit General) began to write guidelines for accepting candidates who wished to join the Jesuit Order.
When finished, these guidelines (the Ratio Studiorum and the Constitutiones, Part IV)) covered every aspect of the candidate's life —emotional, intellectual, physical, and spiritual.

The candidate is warned in advance of the terrible price of being a Jesuit.



To be a Jesuit, you must trust the Order to place you wherever God directs us —whether as an honored priest or the lowest of servants.
Do you really want to be part of this?

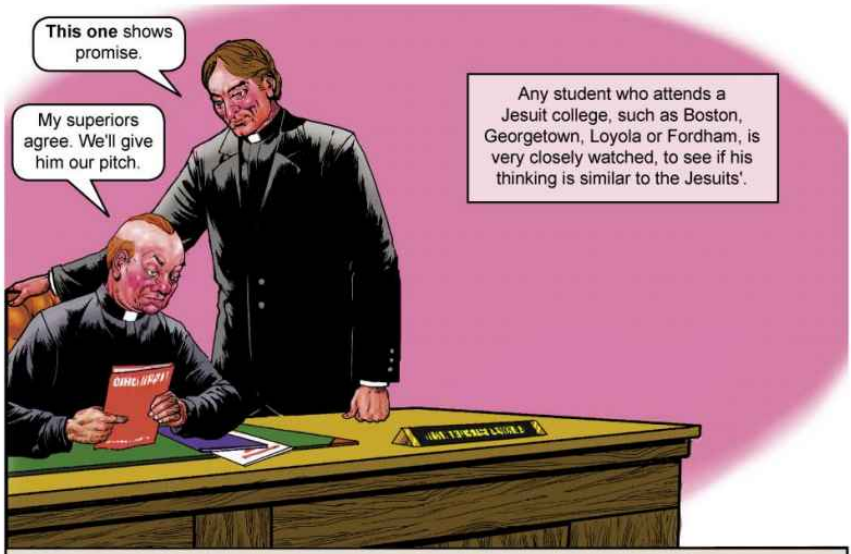
Well...?
If Steve says yes... he may become a member of the most dangerous, undercover army on earth.
But from this point on, his entire life will be in the hands of his superiors — and the Jesuit General.



This one shows promise.
My superiors agree. We'll give him our pitch.
Any student who attends a Jesuit college, such as Boston, Georgetown, Loyola or Fordham, is very closely watched, to see if his thinking is similar to the Jesuits'.

They are looking for a genius —whether Roman Catholic or not— the cream of the crop, and approach him about becoming a candidate. If he accepts their proposal to become a Jesuit, he is brought into the "House of First Probation."*

When the student enters this "house" he is separated from other candidates, but he is surrounded by well-trained graduates, working as cooks, gardeners or doormen...

To enter the "house" you must have these qualifications:

Good looking, heathy, good memory, love the Jesuit institution, discreet, virtuous, desiring spiritual perfection, zealous for souls (to become Roman Catholic).

They must be at least 14 to enter and 25 to become a priest.

*See the Constitutiones Societatis Jesu (1558), Part 1, Ch. 4.

These are known as "temporal coadjutors," The Constitutions of the Society of Jesus, (1970) Part 1, Para. 149a

This marks the end of their innocence.

Over the next 10-14 years, an intensive weeding-out process takes place. Candidates are regularly tested and placed in different groups and levels.

1st Class The "Professed"

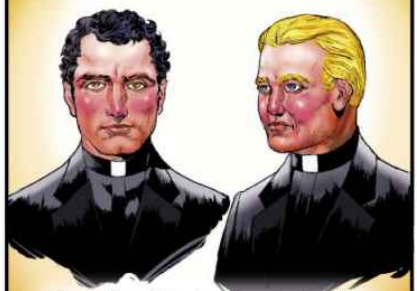
These are priests with "S.J." after their names (if they want to be known).



Only a few of the Jesuits make it to this class. This means that the vast majority of Jesuits are not priests!

They take 4 vows: obedience, poverty, chastity, and "special obedience to the Pope."*

2nd Class The "Formed Coadjutors"

There are 2 kinds:

A) Spiritual Coadjutors These are lesser priests, who can only hear confessions, preach and teach.

B) Temporal Coadjutors These are at the bottom of the barrel, with no spiritual authority whatsoever. They work as cooks, guardians etc., as long as they live... "for the greater glory of God."

3rd Class "Approved Scholastics"

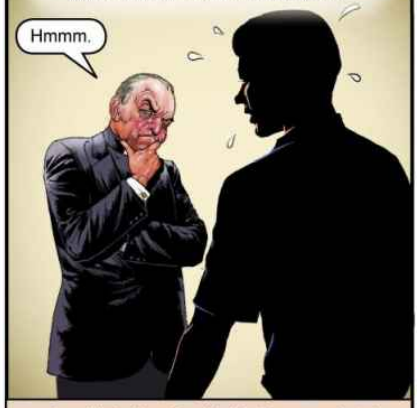
This is a student who promises to lay his future in the hands of his superior...



...who will decide after his 10-14 years of study where he will end up in the system. Whether he becomes a Jesuit priest or a janitor, he trusts that his superior speaks for God.

4th Class "Still Indifferent"

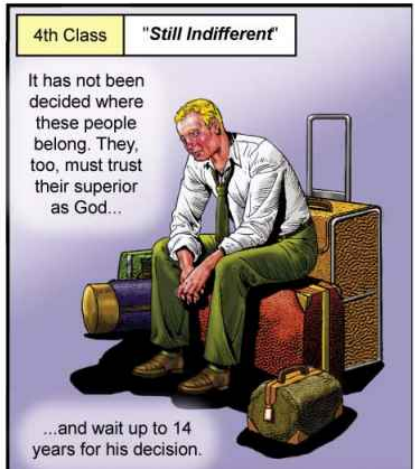
It has not been decided where these people belong. They, too, must trust their superior as God...



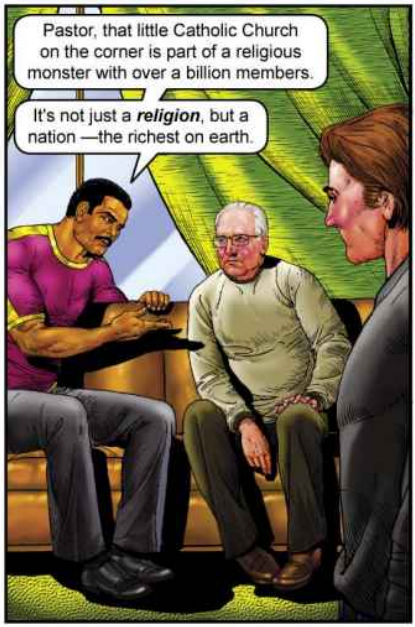
...and wait up to 14 years for his decision.

Their goal is an elite team of the most dedicated men in the world, who will do anything for their Jesuit General without thought or hesitation.

The Jesuit goal is to make the world serve the Pope, by hook or by crook!

Constitutions* (1970), p. 81, "The General Examen,"

Constitutions* (1970), pp. 314-315, Part IX, Ch. 3, Para. 749.



Pastor, that little Catholic Church on the corner is part of a religious monster with over a billion members.
It's not just a religion, but a nation —the richest on earth.

It has its own currency, a bank, it owns corporations, networks and property worldwide. The Vatican's wealth is so vast, it's unbelievable.*
It's a global corporation. And just like any company, it wants to grow.
But the Vatican goes beyond that! It controls governments, politicians, and the world's global monetary system.

*See The Vatican Billions, by Avro Manhattan

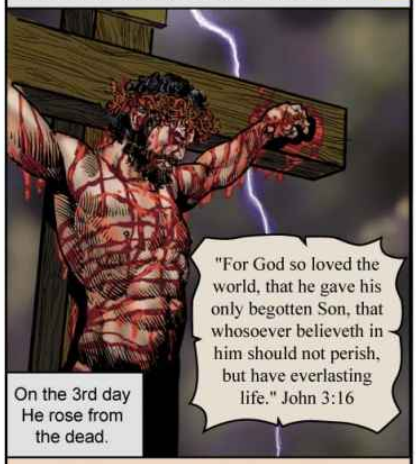
Wait a second. Are you saying that my Catholic friends and neighbors are a part of this worldwide conspiracy?
No, Pastor Art, those precious Catholics are victims of religious bondage to a false gospel that will cause over a billion members to lose their souls. Let's compare their gospel to the one the Lord Jesus gave us...

As you know, the true gospel is very simple.

Jesus left heaven to shed His precious blood to wash away our sins on the cross.

Gospel

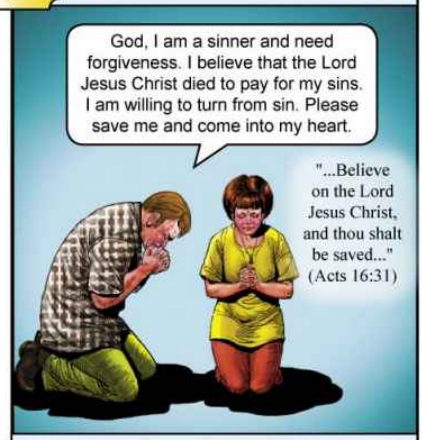
This is how people get saved:



"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16

On the 3rd day He rose from the dead.

He is in heaven and will soon return to rule the world.



God, I am a sinner and need forgiveness. I believe that the Lord Jesus Christ died to pay for my sins. I am willing to turn from sin. Please save me and come into my heart.
"...Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved..." (Acts 16:31)

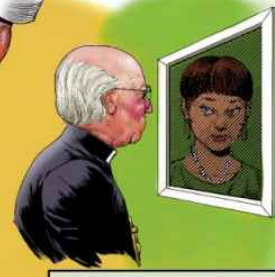
Look how simple this is!

But three centuries later the Roman Catholic system started piling things onto the gospel... like:

Catholic Additions

Prayers to saints, angels and the goddess they claim to be Mary.

Eating Jesus in the form of a wafer (called "the mass").



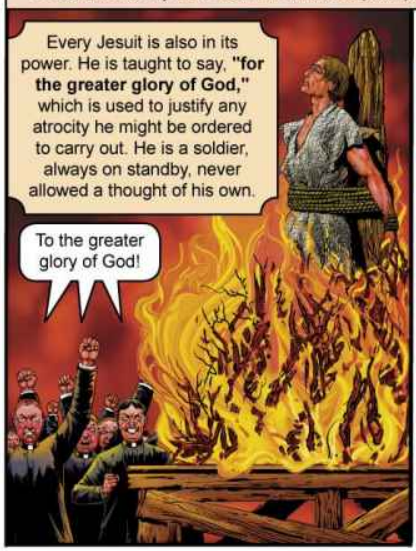
Going to confession and keeping the sacraments (Catholics have seven).

"Extra ecclesiam nulla salus"
(There is no salvation outside of the Roman Catholic Church.)

All for the reward of "Purgatory" (an imaginary place where they must suffer to burn off their sins).

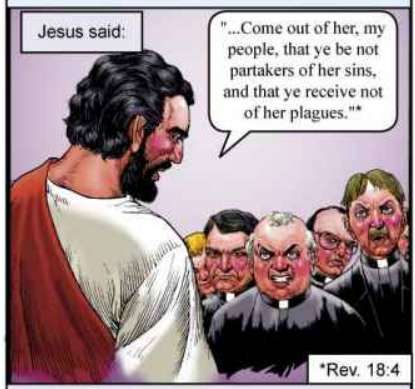
Not one of these Catholic additions is in scripture!

Roman Catholicism is not true Christianity. It's a counterfeit religious machine with incredible power. Its members are unknowingly held captive to the ruler of darkness. Love and devotion are completely overshadowed by fear, lies, and cruel, despotic power.



Every Jesuit is also in its power. He is taught to say, "for the greater glory of God," which is used to justify any atrocity he might be ordered to carry out. He is a soldier, always on standby, never allowed a thought of his own.
To the greater glory of God!

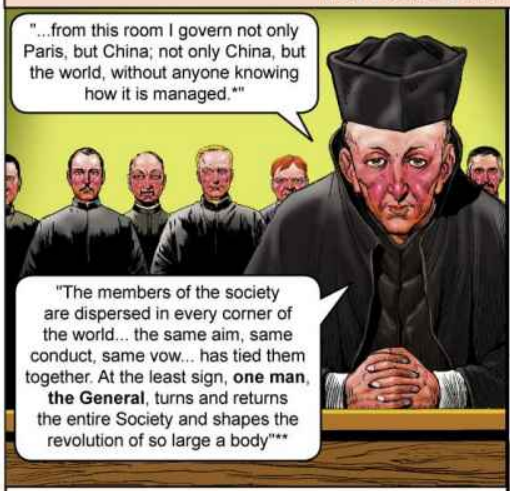
This is why Jesus hates the Vatican and warns the precious Roman Catholics of her coming doom in Revelation 17-18.



The Vatican is on God's hit list.

And look who runs the show!

The Jesuit General



"...from this room I govern not only Paris, but China; not only China, but the world, without anyone knowing how it is managed.*"
"The members of the society are dispersed in every corner of the world... the same aim, same conduct, same vow... has tied them together. At the least sign, one man, the General, turns and returns the entire Society and shapes the revolution of so large a body"

*Superior General Michelangelo Tamburini, see History of the Jesuits, by Andrew Steinmetz, Vol. 1 (1848) pp. 107, 168-69.
Statement authorized by Superior General Mutius Vitelleschi in Imago Primi Saeculi Societas Jesu (1640). See The Suppressed Truth About the Assassination of Abraham Lincoln (1924). pp 14-15.

As Jesuits you will make the world submit to the Pope!
The total power and support of Mother Church are at your disposal... as long as you carry out this assignment.
Become the counsellors and confessors of the powerful, and the educators of their children,
...as our first General, Father Ignatius, commanded us...

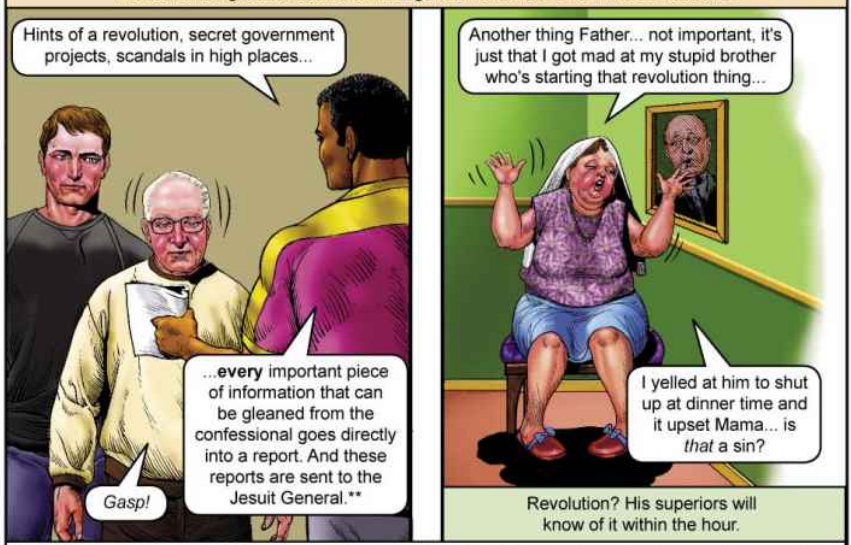
Ignatius showed how to get leaders under Jesuit control.

"You must not begin by talking about spiritual things to people immersed in worldly interests... you must insinuate yourself into their confidence by studying their habits, and spying out their propensities... show yourself a good companion.
When you become acquainted with the bosom sins and pleasant vices of folk in high position, you can lead them on the path of virtue at your pleasure... Make no show of compromise with evil... but refine away the evil by distinctions, reservations, hypothetical conditions, until it disappears... Do not leave folk to their own blunt sense of right and wrong, but let them admire the finer edge of your scalpel, while you shred up evil into morsels they can hardly see... You will be able to absolve with a clear conscience. Your penitent* will abound in gratitude and open out his heart to you. You will fulfil your function as confessor and counsellor.
He will be secured for the sacred ends of our Society, and will contribute to the greater glory of God."

*A person who confesses sins to a priest.

Renaissance in Italy: the Catholic Reaction,* Part 1, by John Addington Symonds (1904), pp. 223-224.

The General's greatest source of intelligence worldwide is from the confessional.



Hints of a revolution, secret government projects, scandals in high places...
...every important piece of information that can be gleaned from the confessional goes directly into a report. And these reports are sent to the Jesuit General.
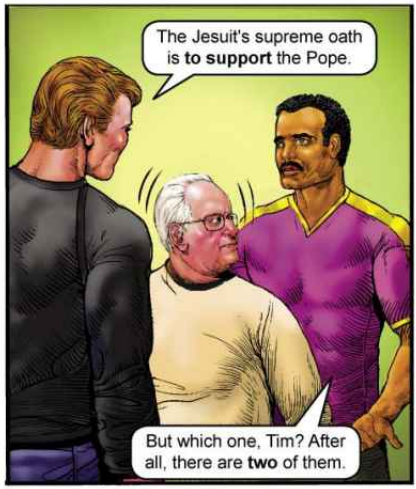
Gasp!
Another thing Father... not important, it's just that I got mad at my stupid brother who's starting that revolution thing...
I yelled at him to shut up at dinner time and it upset Mama... is that a sin?
Revolution? His superiors will know of it within the hour.

See the Constitutiones (1838), Part 4, Chap. 10 Paras. 5 & 7; Part. 8, Chap. 1, Para. 4, and especially paragraph 9. See also the Constitutions (1970), Part 8, Chap. 1, Paras. 673-676.



The White Pope

Before the world he appears to run the Roman Catholic system. All attention is focused on him. All world leaders come to kiss his ring to pledge allegiance to him... but he's not the one who runs the show.

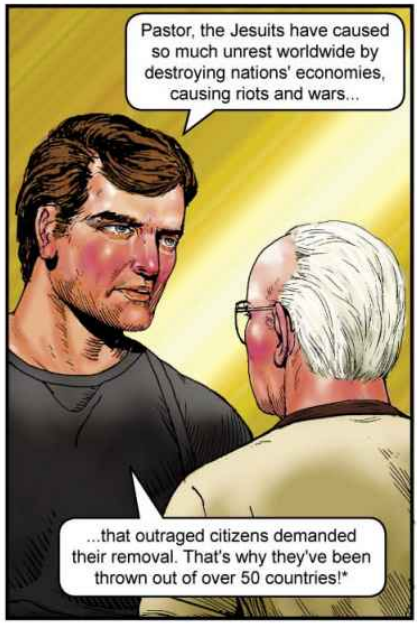
The Black Pope

The Black Pope, the supreme General of the Jesuits, controls the entire church system, including so-called "Non-Catholic" secret societies and world politics, and will oversee the coming inquisition for his master, the Prince of Darkness.

Alberto Rivera

Former Jesuit Priest, Alberto Rivera as well as P.D. Stuart's Codeword Barbelon (2006), led us to books full of this information. Alberto also told us that no assassination takes place without the full knowledge and approval of the Jesuit General.

See the Alberto comic series, available from Chick Publications.
Alberto went to be with the Lord on June 20, 1997.



Pastor, the Jesuits have caused so much unrest worldwide by destroying nations' economies, causing riots and wars...
...that outraged citizens demanded their removal. That's why they've been thrown out of over 50 countries!*

We can't do that in the U.S.A., because Jesuits are protected here by our Constitution...
Their goal to make America Catholic has mostly been accomplished... the only ones who don't seem to know this are the Protestants.

Here is just a glimpse of the havoc these guys have caused:

- Starting civil wars.
- Assassinating presidents and dictators.
- WWI and WWII.
- Jesuit Father Staempfle helped Hitler write Mein Kampf —which is still a best seller in the Muslim community.
- Modern Communism.
- Tried to stop Israel from becoming a nation.
- The Jesuits despise Israel and want Jerusalem for the White Pope.

Only about 2% of Jesuits become Priests. That means 98% of them are basically invisible, all around us. And this doesn't even count the millions educated in "the Ignatian way" in Jesuit schools, colleges and universities.
Good heavens! These people are capable of anything. Could our missing church members have fallen into their hands?
If they did, their General would certainly know about it.
Does he?

*See Secret History of the Jesuits (1974), By Edmond

See Secret History of the Jesuits, pp. 138, 156 and 165.

What? American families imprisoned ahead of schedule? I didn't authorize this! Who did?
Brother Henry, Sir. He's in Indiana right now.
Release those families immediately!
What about Brother Henry?
His arrogance has jeopardized everything. Brother Henry knows the price of disobedience.
Where are you taking us?
Good news! You're being released to go home... the emergency is over.
Praise the Lord!
Thank you Jesus... it's over!
You're coming home with a full military escort.
And I'll drive you myself!
Thank you Conrad, I can't wait to see Pastor Art.
Jesus really helped us, Mama!

Helen —Sam! You're home!
We're back, Pastor! It was all a big mistake. Something to do with hate laws...
Jesuits?
Strange... Henry wasn't there to see us off. I wonder what happened to him?
For the greater glory of God.
Amen.
BLAM!!
Tim, Jim, how do we stop these Jesuits?
They started with suppressing our freedom of speech. Soon freedom of the press will go, and then our right to peaceably assemble. It's already underway.
Only God can, Pastor. And He told us in the Bible they will ultimately succeed.
It'll open the door for the Antichrist who will rule the world from the Vatican! But the Beast and his Jesuit Inquisition are fighting against Almighty God. They will be smashed when the Lord Jesus Christ returns.
Then the Lord Jesus will destroy him and his army and rule the world Himself, bringing the only true peace the world will ever know.

Jesus will judge the billions of lost souls who died in their sins. They will face Jesus and have their lives reviewed at the Great White Throne Judgment.
Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.*
All of the lost will be cast into the lake of fire for all eternity.
But all who are born again by faith in Jesus are saved. And you will reign with Him, judge angels and live in mansions,† if you receive the Lord Jesus as your Saviour.‡ (See page 26)

*Matthew 25:41 Revelation 3:21 1 Corinthians 6:3 †John 14:2-3 ‡John 1:12

THE BIBLE SAYS THERE'S ONLY ONE WAY TO HEAVEN!

Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6)

NOBODY ELSE CAN SAVE YOU

1. Admit you are a sinner.
2. Be willing to turn from sin (repent).
3. Believe that Jesus Christ died for you, was buried and rose from the dead.
4. Through prayer, invite Jesus into your life to become your personal Saviour.

WHAT TO PRAY

Dear God, thank you for showing me what You think about Catholicism. I also reject it! I accept Christ's sacrifice as perfect and complete. Please forgive me in Jesus' name. I invite Jesus Christ to come into my life and I place my trust in Him alone for my salvation. Thank you for giving me eternal life right now.

Did you accept Jesus Christ as your own personal Saviour? Yes ☐ No ☐

Date_____

If your answer was yes, then this is just the beginning of a wonderful new life with Christ. Now:

1. Read your Bible (KJV) every day to get to know Christ better.
2. Pray to God every day (in your own words).
3. Be baptized, worship, fellowship, and serve with Christians in a church where Christ is preached and the Bible is the final authority.
4. Tell others about Christ.
